VOLUME XXIII
Conemaugh Township High School
Davidsville, Pennsylvania

DEDICATION

This volume is gratefully dedicated by the class of 1961 to all who have made possible the recent extension and renovation of the facilities of Conemaugh Township High School.

CLASS HISTORY

In August of 1955 our class began its secondary education at Conemaugh Township High School. As seventh graders we had to make many adjustments: puzzling locker combinations, location of classrooms, new sets of rules and regulations, new acquaintances, bell schedule, and all the new teachers each student would have.

This was the beginning of a new phase of education. With the change in title from elementary to secondary the subjects became more difficult. At the close of the 1956-57 school term, when we were completing the eighth grade, the first elections for class officers were conducted. We chose four able leaders: Walter Ostapiak as president, Chick Liska as vice-president, Jeanne Stutzman as secretary, and Carolyn DeLaura as treasurer. Mrs. Ann Kogut and Mr. Ernest Trexel were also selected at this time to serve as class deans.

Under the new leadership our class, now Freshmen, enthusiastically undertook a magazine campaign to build the class treasury. We set a new sales record by selling $1748.04 in magazine subscriptions.

As Freshmen we re-elected Walter Ostapiak and Jeanne Stutzman in their original positions, added Fred Koss as vice-president and chose Chick Liska as treasurer.

Early in our Sophomore year we began making preparations for what proved to be a most successful Christmas Dance. Long hours were spent decorating for the event. A snow frosted crab-apple tree used as a floor centerpiece accented the decorations. Santa, too, was there checking the dancers' Christmas lists. Snowflakes hung from the ceiling giving "Santa's Workshop" a unique effect.

Judy Manges was elected the Sophomore princess for the '59 Valentine Dance. At the end of the school term we Sophomores added Carol Berzonski as treasurer to the list of class officers. Walter, Jeanne, and Fred all retained their previous positions.

Our Junior year was an extremely busy one. In December we presented "Time Out for Ginger," a three act comedy. Under the direction of Mr. James Vizzini the play gave the participants a chance to gain a little theatrical experience.

We elected Joyce Black as our Junior princess for the annual Valentine Dance. As Juniors we also sponsored the Junior-Senior Prom. Palm trees, leis, and a native hut in the center accented the theme "Bali Ha'i."

At the closing of the 1959-60 school year our class elected officers for the last time. Walter Ostapiak and Jeanne Stutzman were elected for their fourth consecutive terms as president and secretary. Fred Koss was elected for his third term and Carol Berzonski was elected treasurer for her second term.

In November of our Senior year we sponsored a "Harvest Hop." A dress-up hop, it was the first of its kind at CTHS. December of 1960 also brought "Harvey," a three act comedy. Mr. Vizzini directed the play, which proved to be a big success.

The annual Valentine Dance was sponsored by our class in February. A star-studded ceiling lent atmosphere to the "Lovers' Lane" setting. Trees with hearts carved upon them lined the walls of the new gym. Queen Rosalie Boring and King John Donges reigned for the evening.

On May 29, 1961, the Class of '61 assembled for graduation. Many happy days had passed and new paths lay ahead.

ALMA MATER

Oh, Conemaugh with spacious halls
and campus bright and green,
Our fondest memories will remain
in each endearing scene.
We'll ever pledge our loyalties,
devoted hearts to you,
To thee, our Alma Mater, we'll ever more be true.

Hail, hail to the Red and Black,
Hail to our school with a cheer,
We give our best to Conemaugh,
Whose fellowship we hold so dear.

MEET THE AUTHORS

On these pages you will meet the student staff of this year's CONNUMACH. In their hands lay the entire responsibility for the production of a presentable and financially successful yearbook. The proof of their prowess is this volume, each section of which carries the personal stamp of its editor. In presenting this group of young men and women, and so they are for with the acceptance of responsibility such as an edition like this entails comes maturity, we extend our proud congratulations and hearty thanks for a job well done. Now meet the authors:

FACULTY

ADMINISTRATION

Dr. Blough

To the Class of 1961—the twenty-third group of Seniors to be awarded diplomas by Conemaugh Township High School:

As you join more than 2500 other CTHS graduates, we wish you well. Your record at Conemaugh Township has been completed, but your entire adult life is ahead. This is really your commencement—your opportunity to find peace in chaos, success in difficulty, and the good life despite the enticement of evil. You are prepared to face life with courage. We believe in you. We want you to have faith in yourself.

Your high school career has been unique among the twenty-three classes. Three different high school principals have directed your activities. You attended classes in the old building and listened to promises of the new. You experienced the irritations of building construction, but in your Senior year enjoyed the thrill of being the first class to benefit from the improved facilities. Your high school career should be rich in memories. For school board, administration, and faculty a bigger task remains. It is more difficult to build a good educational program than to construct buildings. Teaching continues to be the chief business of schools. In the days ahead we must work together to provide the best possible education for the boys and girls of this community.

May we challenge you wherever you go to take an active interest in your schools. America today must maintain her position of world leadership through the Jeffersonian concept of education for all citizens. You can be part of this enduring dream for a better world for yourself and your children.

DR. TELFORD B. BLOUGH
Supervising Principal

To the Class of 1961 let me extend my sincere wishes for a happy life. In the years that follow, when you open this CONNUMACH your memories will be of the happy years you spent at CTHS. I sincerely hope your remembrance of me will be happy. I hope, also, that I have added to the direction of your life.

Twenty years ago I trod your path and received my high school diploma; at that time there were clouds of war also, but such terms as the "atom bomb," "jet aircraft," and "the United Nations" were not included in our vocabulary. Your horizons are unlimited, but there must be understanding based on knowledge. Continue to seek knowledge wherever you may be. Make your energy serve your God, your country, and yourself. Man's great power is the ability to think. Use this power!

DEPARTMENTS

ENGLISH

These sophomore English students are engaged in the study of Silas Marner.

Mrs. May looks on while Judy Reynolds illustrates a point in sentence construction.

English is one of the few subjects which follows everyone through all his six years of high school. This is to be expected, since the language is basic to an understanding of our civilization. A thorough, spontaneous knowledge of the English language is a prerequisite to virtually every important job in our country.

Mrs. Kogut's English class is studying sentence composition.

Walt is asking Jeanne about a difficult step in a trig problem.

Let's see now, where does that decimal go?

Mathematics at Conemaugh Township High School is heavily stressed. We are proud of the scientists and engineers we have produced. Because of its versatility, mathematics is the official language of the scientific professions. It organizes and clarifies the thought processes. It is represented by a complex system of symbols which, to the layman, are often baffling. To the mathematician they are indispensable.

SOCIAL STUDIES

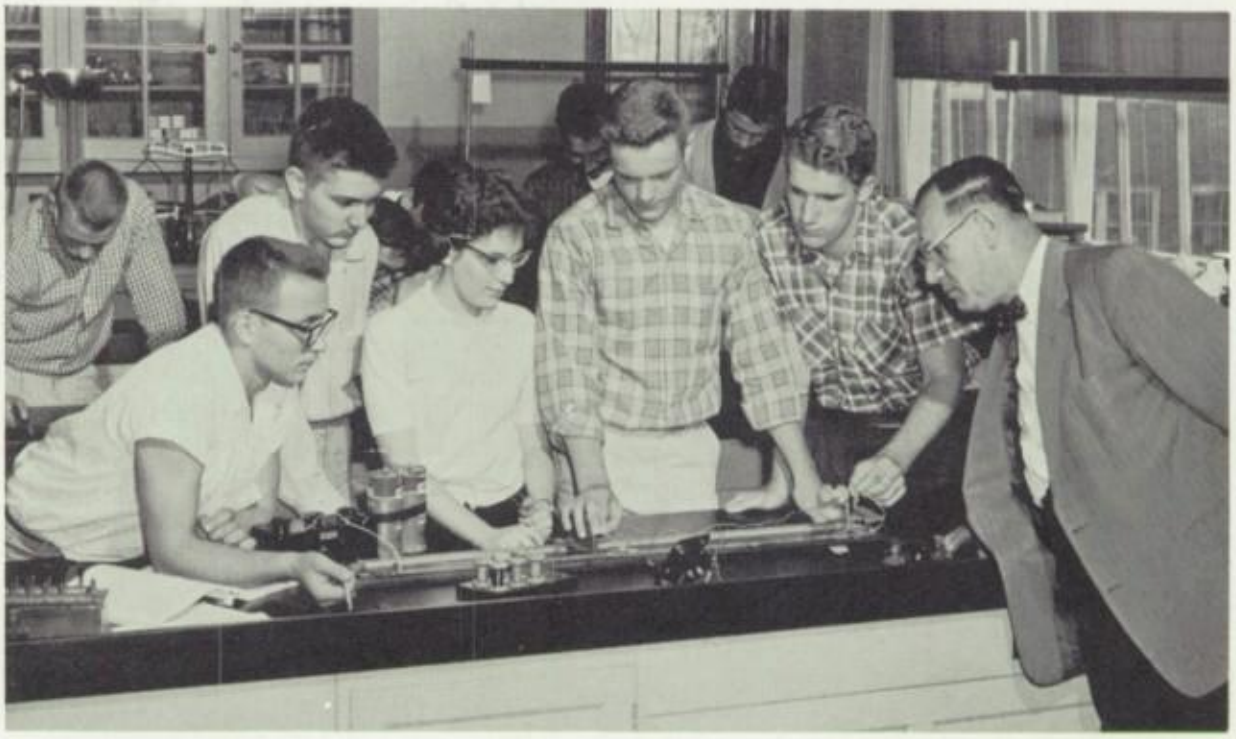
Mr. Kelly uses the bulletin board in order to keep his civics classes informed on current events.

Albert is discussing one of the complex problems of democracy.

The social studies department plays a key role in enabling students to understand the problems of today's world. By studying all phases of man's civilization, from ancient times up to the present, students can comprehend the causes and, theoretically, the cures of world tensions. Combining this thorough knowledge of history with a clear understanding of geography provides students with a more accurate concept of our world.

Mr. O'Connor's class uses a globe of the world to clarify their lesson.

SCIENCE



Carl demonstrates the use of the Wheatstone Bridge in the field of electricity to some of his fellow physics students.

The anatomy class uses microscopes to get a close-up view of their studies.

Mr. Michael's general science class is absorbed in one of their many interesting scientific experiments.

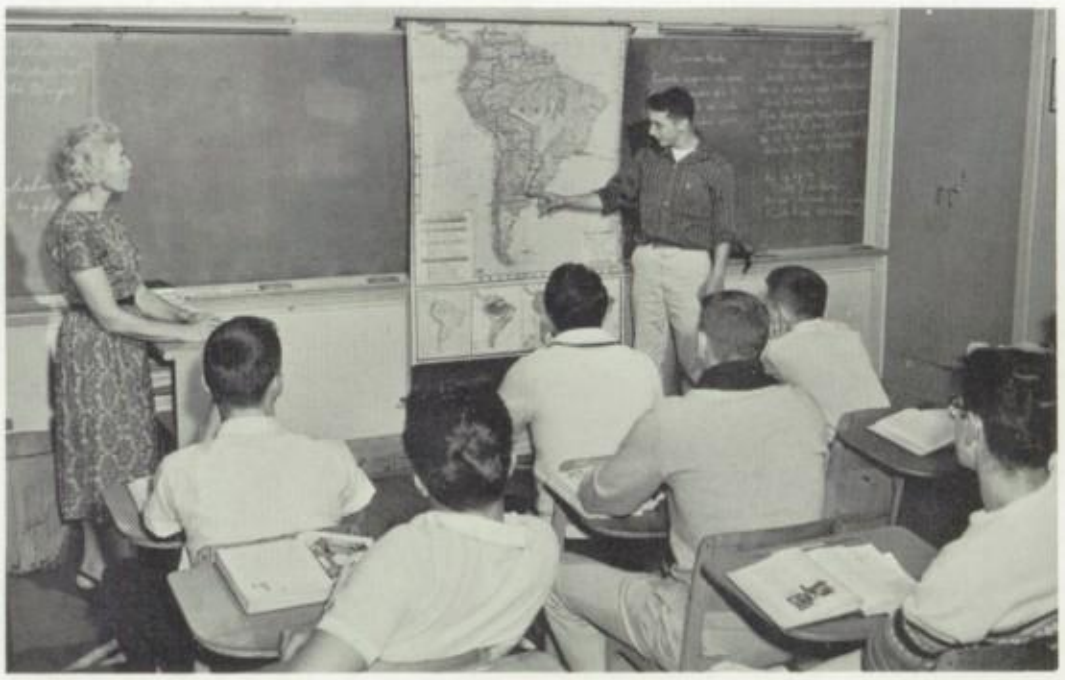
The science courses which are available at Conemaugh Township include the following: general science taught by Mr. Michaels; physical science taught by Mr. Ifft; biology, anatomy, and chemistry taught by Mr. Drenner; and physics taught by Mr. Berkebile. In these courses students learn the modern methods and practices which are essential in order to keep up with modern day technical advances.

The influence of this guidance staff is felt by every student in the school.

GUIDANCE

The members of the Guidance Department are always ready to lend a helping hand with student problems. Members of this department are Miss Lohr, Mr. Beckley, Mrs. Wonder, and Dr. Thomas. An ample library is maintained in the guidance offices for the benefit of career-planning students.

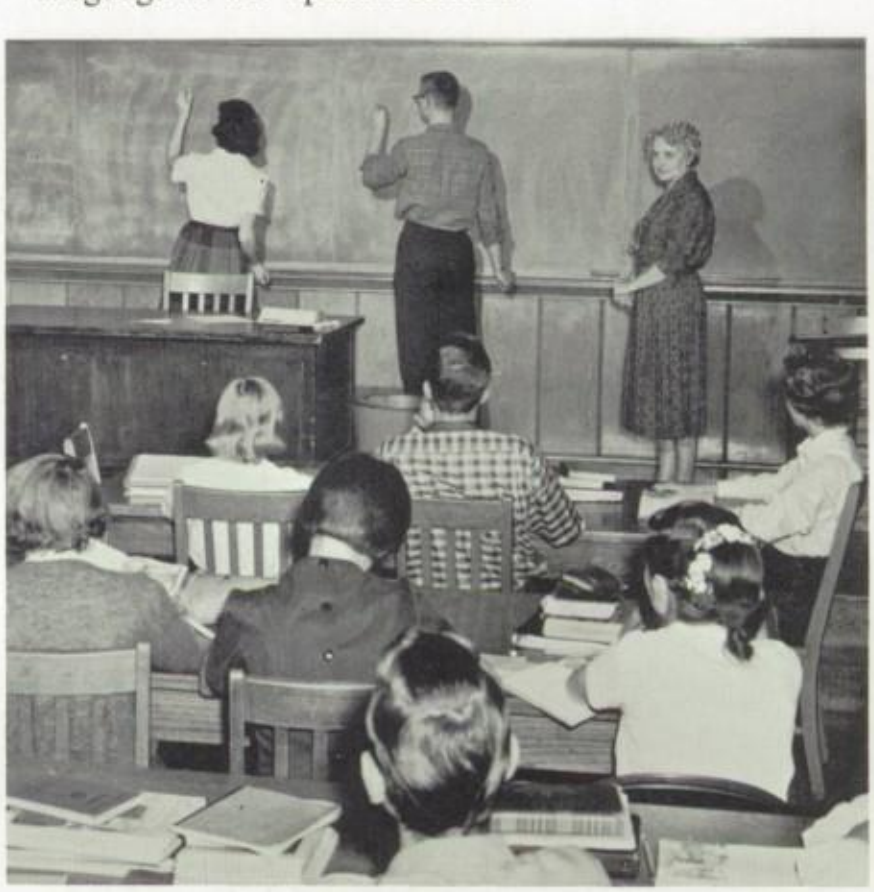
Constant, hushed activity is carried on amid the quiet of the library.



Buenos Aires está aquí cerca del Uruguay.

LANGUAGES

Latin and Spanish are the two languages available to Conemaugh Township students. Latin, taught by Mrs. Wonder, is a memorable class with its conjugations and declensions. Miss Kaufman teaches us the language of our Spanish friends.



Let's see now, present tense conjugation of peto.

LIBRARY

The library provides high caliber reading material for CTHS students. It offers a wide literary selection: from German texts to autobiography; from fiction to encyclopedias. Mrs. Shirk sees that a proper atmosphere is maintained at all times.

A day of reckoning for one of Mr. Littlejohn's JBT classes.

COMMERCIAL

Most Twips planning to enter commercial vocations select the commercial course at the beginning of their Freshman year. Among the skills taught to them are typing, shorthand, business law, retailing, and business math.

This shorthand class of Mrs. Statler's certainly looks industrious.

REMEDIAL ED.

This class offers many interesting fields of study. It provides courses in math, English, and social studies. The students use the Reader's Digest as a source of good reading material. These youngsters are taught to become useful and responsible citizens.

Toni Testa checks in for a wheel training session with Mr. Kautz.

DRIVERS' ED.

Driver education is an important course offered to the students of Conemaugh Township High School. Good driving habits and attitudes are taught by Mr. Kautz and Mr. Shank. The course consists of a minimum of thirty hours of class work and about six hours of wheel training. This class is also open during the summer months.

Mr. Eash uses a tape recorder to emphasize speech clarity.

AGRICULTURE

The vo-ag department, now housed in the new wing, teaches down-to-earth farming methods. Mr. Ifft, the instructor of this class, is well qualified for this position. In teaching his students animal husbandry, pest control, and generally, how to get larger crops from less land, Mr. Ifft prepares them for a future vocation. The boys in this department are organized into a club called Future Farmers of America.

These boys are learning useful skills in their chosen vocation.

Learning to read and draw construction plans is an important part of Mr. Terebus's shop class.

SHOP

The Shop classes form an important part of our vocational curriculum. The boys enrolled in this course become skilled in the use of wood- and metal-working tools. Many of these fellows are later employed as carpenters or machinists. Shop is chosen an elective by many senior high students. The teachers are Mr. Terebus, Mr. Helsel, and Mr. Ifft.

ART

Art is one class which gives the students a chance to express themselves. The course, chosen as an elective, gives these junior artists experience in many artistic fields: textile design, sculpture, and painting. Mr. Kososki, the art instructor, is always ready to help students who encounter problems in the course. He is also helpful in designing posters and programs for school activities.

Kitty gets pointers on her painting.

Exercise is an asset to a good figure.

Sixteen all! And that evens the score again.

GYM

Physical education gives every student a change from the regular routine of classes. Every student has a chance to improve his physical co-ordination and endurance. Volleyball, basketball, and calisthenics are an important part of all the gym classes. Mrs. Ickes and Mr. Kogut are the physical education instructors.

Mr. Shank is the heart of this health class.

These girls were among the lucky first to use the new homemaking suite.

HEALTH

Every student is required to take two years of Health. Taught by Mr. Shank and Mrs. Ickes, the class stresses first aid and disease prevention.

HOMEMAKING

The girls enrolled in the home economics course are taught to cook, sew, and plan menus for well-balanced meals. The class is taught by Mrs. Mishler and Mrs. Popyk.

ACTIVITIES

With its many activities, including Student Day, hall monitoring, Christmas decorations, and a clothing drive for the needy, the Senior High Student Council had a very active year.

Senior High Student Council

The Student Council can attribute its success to these able leaders and their advisor Mrs. Wonder.

The Student Council is a representative body which promotes a better understanding among students, faculty, and administration.

SENIOR HIGH OFFICERS

President—Lewis Metts
Vice-pres. — John Yoder
Secretary—Diana Pescuric
Treasurer—Walter Ostapiak
Ass't tr.— Jeanne Stutzman
Sergeant-at-Arms—
Patsy Yoder
Chaplain—John Donges
Ass't Chaplain—Violet Eash
Advisor—Mrs. Wonder

With an alternate and representative from each homeroom, the Junior High is equally represented in the Junior High Student Council. Council members receive invaluable experience during their terms in office.

Junior High Student Council

The Junior High Student Council is a separate organization with its own Constitution. These young members are learning how meetings are to be conducted by using correct parliamentary procedure. Although their activities are limited, these students are learning how to be responsible and trustworthy individuals. Some day they will be assuming the positions of the Senior High Student Council members.

An executive meeting of the Student Council is in progress. The organization is supervised by Mr. Eash.

National Honor Society

The National Honor Society is a nationwide organization which gives recognition to outstanding achievements by high school students. Members must attain and maintain high scholastic, service, leadership, and character ratings. Juniors who have met these qualifications are received into the Society in an impressive induction ceremony. Mrs. Wonder is advisor of the Conemaugh Township chapter. This year's officers were: president—Carl Kaufman; vice-president—Walter Ostapiak; secretary—Judy Reynolds; treasurer—Barbara Obert; and historian —Vivian Mishler.

Future Teachers of America

The Future Teachers of America is a club which was designed to help acquaint the "would be" teachers with the teaching profession.

Under the able direction of the advisor, Miss Will, and the leadership of the officers, the FTA had a successful year. Officers are: president, Walter Ostapiak; vice-president, Dennis Saylor; secretary, Vivian Mishler; treasurer, Steve Dill; historian, Carol Berzonski.

JETS

Under the direction of Mr. Berkebile the Junior Engineering Technical Society of CTHS conducted investigations in dynamics and motion. Junior and senior boys who have displayed an active interest in their science and math courses are eligible for club membership. JETS members expand their knowledge of science through experiments which help explain many of the phenomena, both man-made and natural, which occur around us. Many of the members plan to enter either scientific or engineering fields upon graduation. Walter Ostapiak served as president, with Lee Wible as his vice-president.

Future Nurses of America

The Future Nurses of America prepare themselves for careers in the medical field. Many of them look forward to nursing school and later to careers as registered nurses. This year the group was represented by Judy Manges at the first State Convention of the F. N. A. This convention will be an annual event in the future. Officers of the club, which is sponsored by Mrs. Foster, are: president—Judy Manges; vice-president—Bonnie McDaniels; secretary—Arlene Walker; treasurer—Susan Leitenberger; and historian—Erma McKowan.

Future Farmers of America

The Future Farmers of America, directed by Mr. Ifft, is a group of boys who are interested in agriculture. Its members are taught to use and service modern farming machinery. Several annual FFA projects include: handling of the stadium refreshment stand, holding the faculty's chicken barbecue, and selling Bermuda onions. FFA officers are: president—Albert Smith; vice-president—Loren Stahl; secretary—Gene Ford; treasurer—Tom Brown; reporter—Richard Maldet; and sentinel—Gary Davidhizar.

Future Homemakers of America

The Future Homemakers of America, under the direction of Mrs. Mishler, are learning the skills that will someday make them efficient homemakers. Cooking and sewing are two of the many skills that these young lasses are learning to master. They will make home a happy and enriching place in which to live. Officers are: president—Joyce Stevens; vice-president—Suzanne Alwine; secretary—Jeanne Ifft; treasurer—Pat Kramer; Chairman of Activities—Gloria Marisa; chaplain—Joyce Shirey; reporter—Pat Cosgrove; and historian—Jacky Stuver.

The Junior High Future Homemakers meet with their advisor, Mrs. Popyk.

Junior High Future Homemakers of America

Junior High Future Homemakers learn the basic fundamentals of homemaking, but are only beginning their training. The next step for them will be Senior High Future Homemakers where they will go deeper into the study of home economics. They are under the capable supervision of Mrs. Janet Popyk.

Public Address

The public address system was handled by Jeanne Stutzman and Walter Ostapiak. Each morning Jeanne, the P. A. chaplain, started the day properly with the reading of several verses from the Bible, and with the flag salute. Her cheery "good morning!" brightened the days, especially gloomy Mondays, for everyone. The announcements which followed gave us helpful information concerning the day's activities. Walt operated the complicated controls in such a way that every room in the building received all the announcements loudly and clearly.

Jeanne and Walter prepare for the morning announcements.

Dave and Andrea are our efficient, hardworking bankers.

School Bank

Commercial students who have attained high grades are eligible to work in the school bank. These students working in the bank have proven to be trustworthy and reliable. A few of their duties are: checking dummy checks against stubs, taking care of deposits and money from the Conemaugh Township grade schools, and a very important task is that of making out bank statements at the end of the month. David Podrasky and Andrea Lapp can be found in the bank at least once each day, busily performing their duties. With Mr. Beckley's supervision, the school bank has become a commendable organization.

Thespians

Thespian Troupe 412, which is guided by Mr. James Vizzini, presents several plays during the year. Each spring new members are added. The year is highlighted for this club by a banquet at Green Gables and a play at the Mountain Playhouse. The officers are: president—Chick Liska; vice-president—George Ault; secretary—Carl Kaufman; treasurer—Joyce Black.

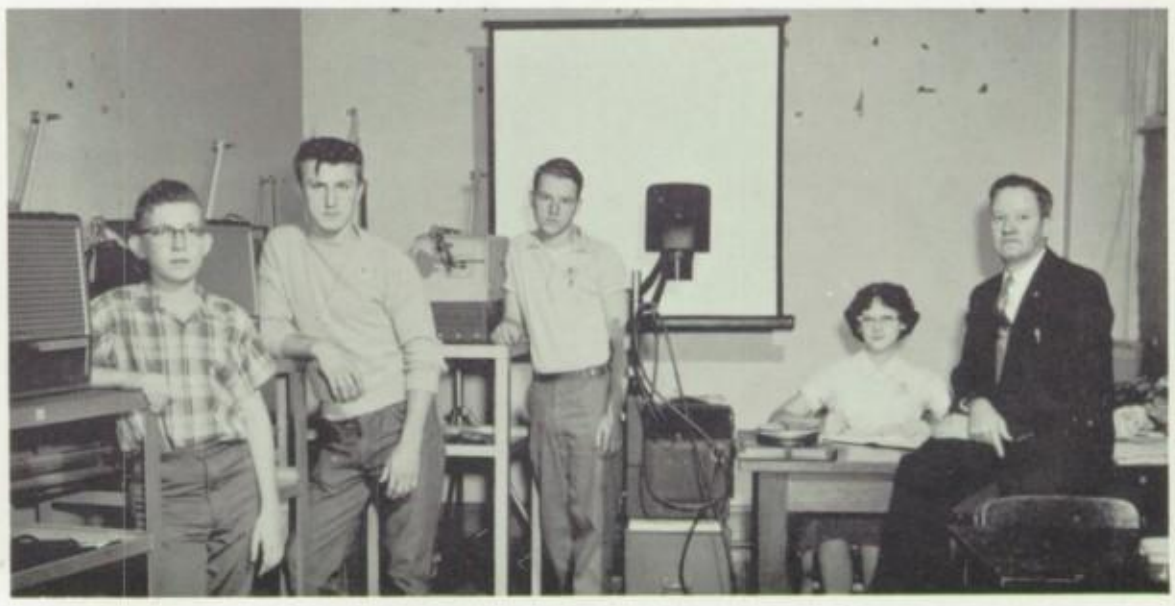
Stage Hands

These behind the scenes men work as hard to present plays as do the actors and actresses. Not only do they build the sets and operate the lights for school plays, but they are also on hand for lyceums and other assemblies. They spend many hours building, painting, and arranging sets. Of course these boys are rarely seen by the audiences, but without them no play, lyceum, or assembly could be presented.

STAGEHANDS—Top: Andy Poznanski, Kelly Chaplin, and Dave Podrasky. Bottom: Bob Bergman, Joe Tamburini, Dennis Kauffman, and Bill Chaplin.

Projection Club

This club consists of boys who are interested in assisting in the visual aids program of Conemaugh Township High School. Under the capable supervision of Mr. Eash and Wilma Shaffer, secretary, the club functions as a valuable and worth-while tool. These boys run the projectors for the movies which are shown in assemblies and in classrooms.



Mr. Eash along with members of the Projection Club

CONTOWNIAN

Editor-in-Chief, Marian Younkin. Under Marian's able leadership and hard work the CONTOWNIAN was made a worthwhile publication.

Columnists, Gary Williamson and Dorothy Stefanik—a hard working team.

News Editor, Jeanne Stutzman grubbed for news in the most unlikely places.

Sports Editor, Judy Reynolds—covered the tepee's sports scene.

Feature Staff—A bright group who worked hard to come up with original ideas.

Sports Staff—An industrious group of sports minded fellows who covered the Reservation's athletic contests.

News Staff—These roving reporters, who really dug deep for stories, practiced the newsman's five W'.s

STAFF

Feature Editor, Carol Berzonski—searched constantly for good feature material.

Typing Editor, Rosalind Gordon—clattering keys and a hundred words per minute????????

Advisor, Mr. Paxton. A wonderful advisor who was always lending a helpful hand and giving an encouraging word to everyone.

Headline Editor, John Donges—cut some beautiful heads.

Vocational Editor, Patsy Yoder—helpful career suggestions.

Mimeograph—great praise goes to the Commercial Department without whose toil the CONTOWNIAN would be nonexistent.

Typing Staff—Goop, copies, and dummies are very familiar words to this efficient group.

Cartoonists and Headcutters—The talented "art department" of the paper were responsible for the cartoons and headlines.

CTHS

The Conemaugh Township High School Band directed by Mr. John Salay made an impressive showing this year in its appearances at football games, parades, and concerts.

The members of the Marching Band will always remember the fun they had marching at the football games. But they also will remember the hard work involved learning the intricate drill routines. At times Mr. Salay's patience was tried: when one hundred members seemed to be working against rather then with one another. But when Friday night came everyone was proud of the performance put forth by the Red and Black.

BAND

Among other cherished memories for them were the local parades throughout the surrounding communities. The blaring of the bugles and the snappy beat of the drums brought the crowds to their feet in excitement.

The Concert Band became active after football season ended. Practicing was made more cheerful by the pleasant atmosphere of the new band room. Each individual learned the art of playing together as a group rather than exhibiting individual talents. This group practiced diligently for All-County Band and Spring Concert.

The swing band acquaints students with swing and dance music.

Small musical groups such as the ones pictured here are often considered the most valuable phase of instrumental music. Not only does the student become acquainted with a wide variety of music, but he learns to take a leading part in the performance of them. Although these groups are seldom heard, except for occasional assemblies and in Spring Concert, the members practice in order to always present a polished performance. Since these groups consist of only the best, they present a goal for all of the younger musicians.

The woodwind ensemble provides light, semi-classical music for the spring concert.

The trumpet quartet is an important part of assemblies and the spring concert.

Beautiful harmony may be heard in the music of the brass ensemble.

Music played by the sax quintet includes all imaginable types.

The orchestra gives students a chance to learn to appreciate classical and semi-classical music.

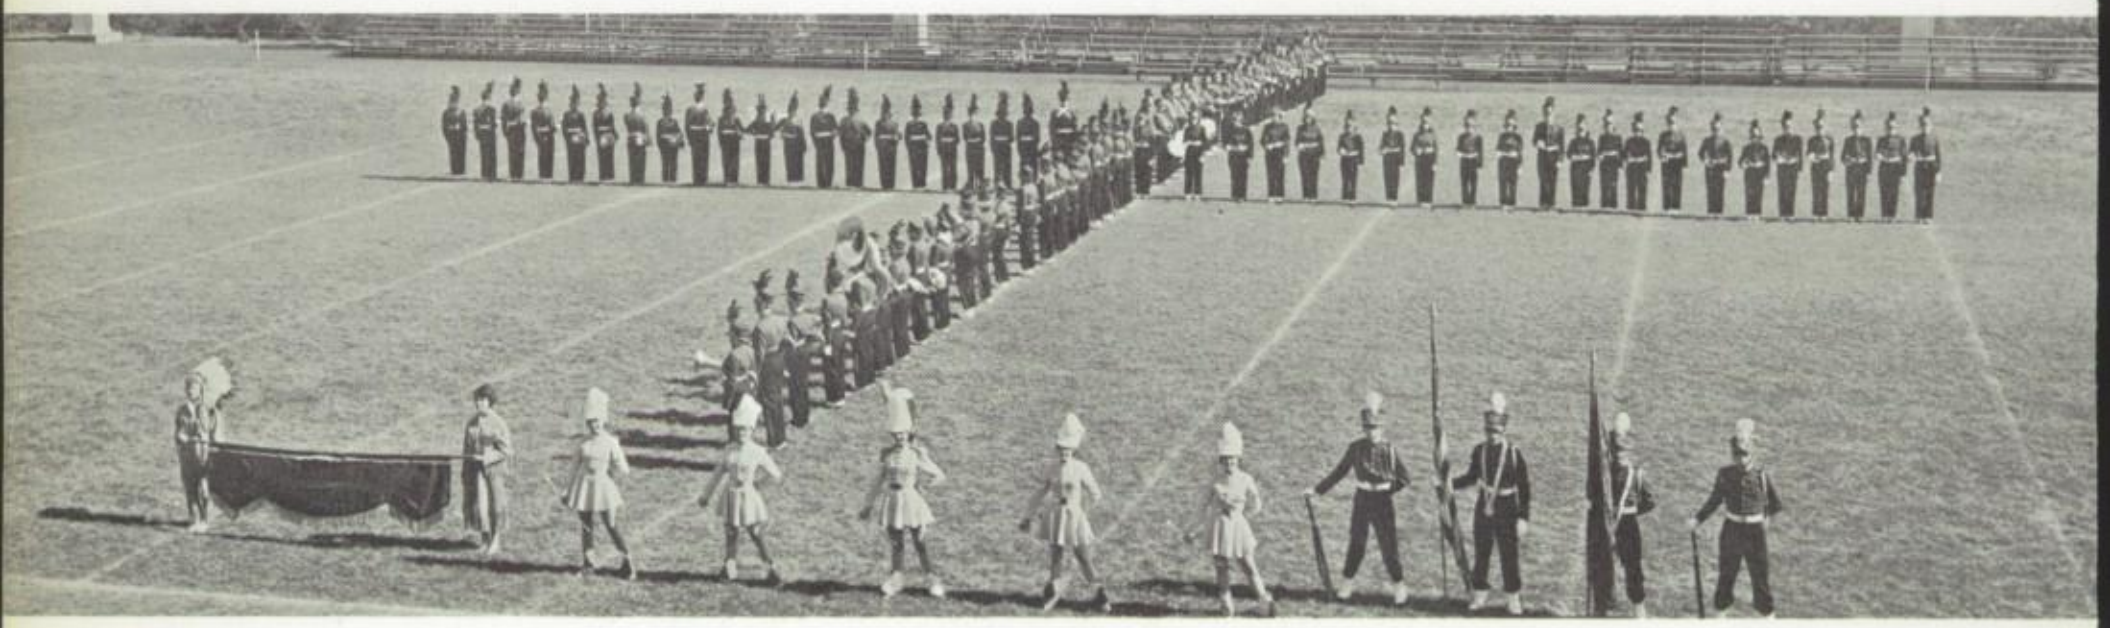
Most students fully appreciate the performance of the assembly band during assemblies and pep rallies.

It's easy to see that the seniors make up a large portion of the orchestra and assembly band. These organizations play some of the most difficult instrumental music in the school. The seniors are best suited for these groups because of their past experience in music. Soon underclassmen will move up to take their places. Because of this natural progression, the musical organizations retain their high quality year after year, giving much enjoyment and pleasure to all.

The underclass members of the band will have to put forth a great effort to replace these seniors next year.

Carol Berzonski, head majorette, did a very good job of leading our band this year.

Rosalie Boring, Mary Carol Ketchock, Roberta Minahan, Barbara Obert and Carol Berzonski.



This is only one of the complex maneuvers the band used to entertain spectators during half-time at the football games.

The experience that Kitty Agnello, Yvonne Hart, and Vivienne Klesyk are gaining as alternate majorettes will help them in the future.

The color guards and banner carriers are instrumental in giving our band a good appearance.

The Junior High Clarinet Ensemble will soon become an important part of the band.

Four promising trumpet players can be found in the Junior High Trumpet Quartet.

Mr. Salay holds the key to instrumental music education.

The instrumental music department consists of a variety of organizations. A program is available which includes practically all types of instruction from Junior High Band to Senior Band and Orchestra. Under the able instruction of Mr. John Salay, students in any grade have an opportunity to study music and learn to play any of a wide variety of instruments. This instruction begins by teaching basic principles and later progresses to higher levels of playing and appreciation. By participating in these activities, the students gain both the ability to work with others and a new range of interests.

The Junior High Band members one day will fill the shoes of the Senior Band.

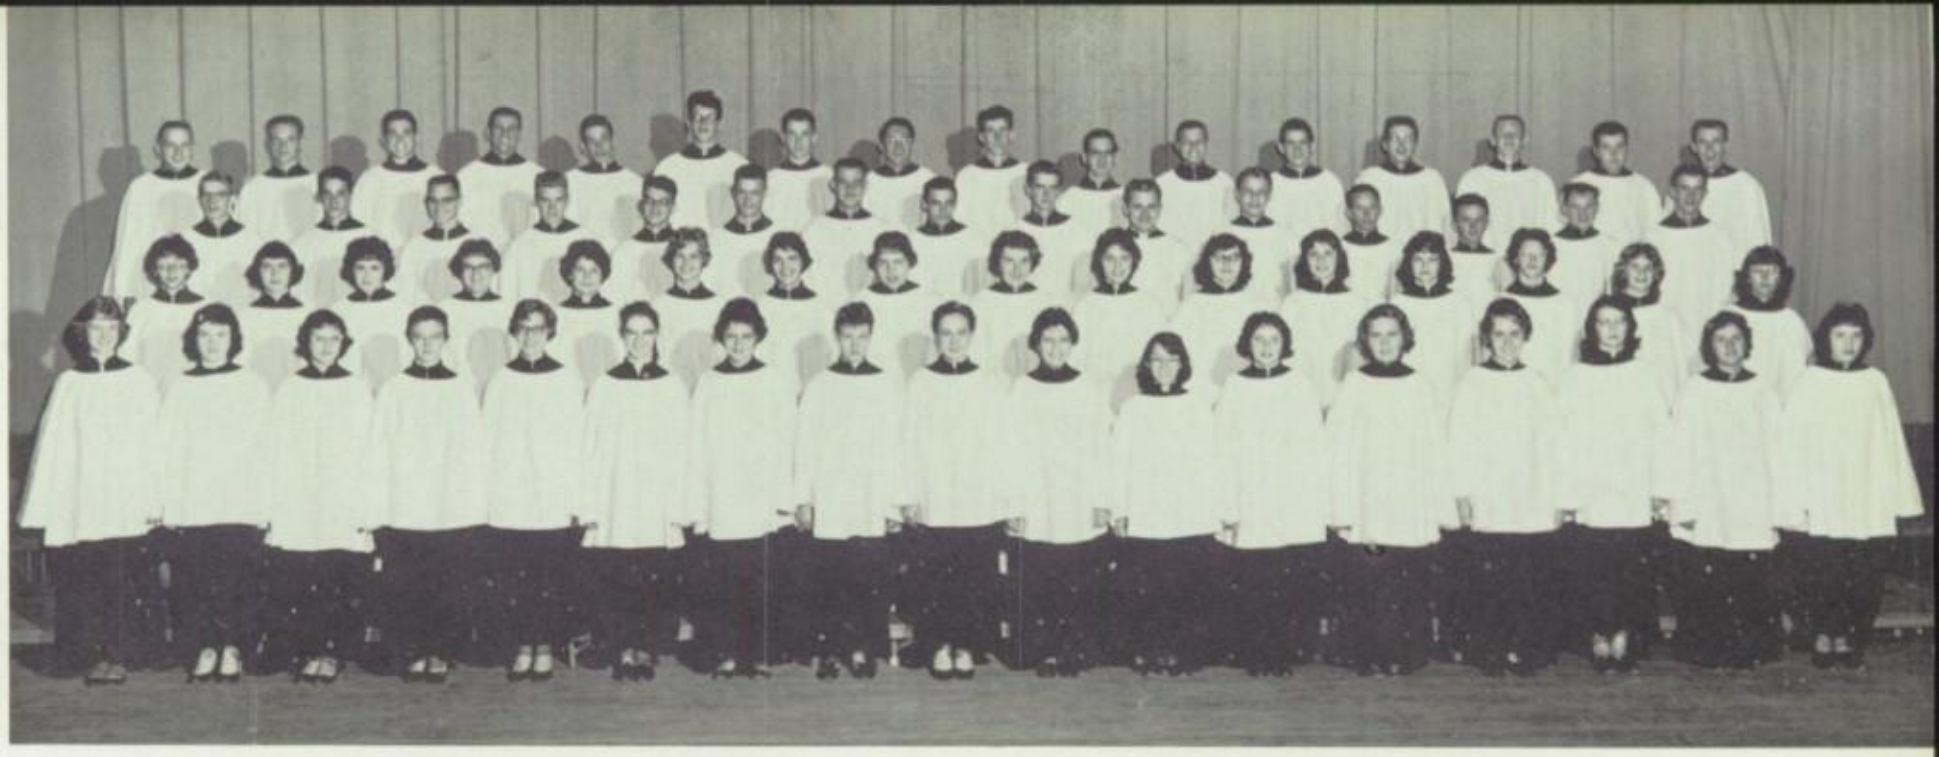
The Senior High Chorus practiced diligently twice each week to ready themselves for All County Chorus and the Spring Concert.

The Senior High Girls' Quartet consists of Judy Reynolds, Diana Pescuric, Marian Younkin and Judy Ott. Karen Reichelt accompanied these girls.

Five good friends—Chester Thomas, George Ault, Tom Bianco, John Donges, and Mischief comprise the Senior High Boys' Quartet.

The Octet consists of Lois Yoder, Nova Wingard, Judy Cagley, Kathy Koontz, Jack Foreback, Bryan Slick, Carl Kaufman, and Chick Liska.

Marian Younkin accompanies the Senior High Girls' Trio. The singing lasses are Judy Reynolds, Diane Pescuric, and Judy Ott.



The Conemaugh Township High School choir presents concerts of sacred music throughout the school year.

Really now, Marian, we thought it was funny.

Could the senior choir members be reminiscing about the wonderful times shared in choir? Probably not, but these seniors will never forget the hard work and effort put forth by Miss Blanche Shaffer, their director.

Each year Miss Shaffer, vocal music director, turns out a superior choir and choruses.

Miss Shaffer leads the choir during an afternoon practice session. Preparation for the evening concerts was begun in September. The spring concerts were, as always, well attended by members of local churches.

The Junior High Girls' ensemble practices under the direction of Miss Shaffer. These girls added a bright note to the Spring Concert.

Junior High Vocal Groups

The Junior High music groups include musically talented students in grades seven, eight, and nine. Vocal groups such as the Junior High chorus, girls' trio, and the girls' ensemble are available for Junior High students. Accompanists for these groups get valuable training in following manual direction and playing for a large group, no easy task in itself. Freshmen from these groups are selected to fill choir and Senior High chorus positions vacated by graduating Seniors.

Norma Younkin and Janet Holsopple accompanied all Junior High singing groups.

Janet Phillips, Trudy Wingard, and Pat Sala made up the Junior High girls' trio, a fine little choral group.

Two practices a week put this Junior High chorus in fine voice for Spring Concert.

A colorful cast on the deck of the good ship "H.M.S. Pinafore."

"H.M.S. Pinafore"

On March 15, 1960, vocal and instrumental music departments joined forces to present "H.M.S. Pinafore," a rollicking musical parody by Gilbert and Sullivan. With all the pomp and ceremony of the Queen's Navy the show got off to a swashbuckling start. Miss Shaffer and Mr. Salay, assisted by Mr. Vizzini and Mrs. Ickes, directed this, our major musical presentation of recent years. In a setting so realistic one could almost taste the salty sea air, the ship's crew and all Sir Joseph's bargeload of sisters, cousins, and aunts sang and sparkled their way through a most popular production.

Lois Yoder as Cousin Hebe speaks with Paul McGonigle, who portrayed Sir Joseph.

Pat Sherbine and Dennis Thomas starred as Josephine and Ralph.

The Captain, Bryan Slick, finds he is now free to marry little Buttercup, played by Barbara Wingard.

These juniors worked hard to make "Time Out For Ginger" a big success.

Junior Class Play

"Time Out For Ginger"

"Time Out For Ginger," a three act comedy, was presented by the Juniors on December 4, 1959. The Juniors had worked hard since the preceeding October, and with the direction of Mr. James Vizzini they presented a play that was a hit not only at the matinee for the student body, but also was well-received by the adult audience in the evening.

The play centered around a determined tomboy who wanted to go out for the high school football team. Although she had to fight her way, she finally emerged the victor.

The cast included: Lizzie—Vivian Mishler; Agnes Carol—Diana Pescuric; Harold Carol—Chick Liska; Joan—Joyce Black; Jeannie—Carol Berzonski; Ginger—Jeanne Stutzman; Eddie Davis—John Donges, Fred Koss; Tommy Green—Dave Alwine; Mr. Wilson—Tom Bianco; Ed Hoffman—Carl Kaufman; Student Directors—Marian Younkin, George Ault; Prompters—Rita Miller, Patsy Yoder, Carolyn De Laura; Property Manager—Arlene Walker; Stage Manager—John Gartland.

George Ault and Marian Younkin, co-student directors, and Mr. James Vizzini, director, take a moment to chat.

This boy didn't know his own strength, but he discovered it when he stepped in to protect his girl.

Ginger's parents gave her trouble when she decided to go out for the football team.

A few new faces appeared as once again the class of '61 undertook a stage production.

Senior Class Play

"Harvey"

Judy Reynolds, student director, points out some ideas to Mr. Vizzini, director.

Under the direction of Mr. James Vizzini the Class of '61 set out to produce another successful play. Practices were filled with much fun, and lots of hard work which paid off in the end. On December 2, 1960 the Seniors proudly presented the three act comedy entitled "Harvey." Success was inevitable.

Harvey was a 6′ 1½″ invisible rabbit which Elwood P. Dowd claimed to see. Mr. Dowd and Harvey got into much hilarious trouble, but all ended well.

The cast included: Myrtle Mae Simmons—Jeanne Stutzman; Veta Louise Simmons—Vivian Mishler; Elwood P. Dowd—Gary Williamson; Mrs. Ethel Chauvenet—Muriel Toms; Ruth Kelly, R. N. —Diana Pesuric; Wilson—Don Ferre; Lyman Sanderson, M. D.—— Chick Liska; William Chumley, M. D.—Tom Bianco; Betty Chumley—Marian Younkin; Judge Omar Gaffney—George Ault; E. J. Lofgren—Dave Alwine; Prompters—Joyce Black, Rita Miller; Student Director—Judy Reynolds.

Mrs. Chauvenet was quite impressed, but Veta and Myrtle were shocked when Elwood turned up unexpectedly.

A fight was almost the result of this scene as Wilson tried to find out where Dr. Chumley was.

CHRISTMAS

December 17, 1961 was the date of the annual Christmas Dance sponsored by the Sophomore Class. This was the first dance that was held in the recently completed gymnasium. The theme "Christmas in Central Park" was effectively developed by means of park benches and a city panorama. The music was provided by the Duke Andrews Orchestra.

The students weren't the only ones enjoying the dance, as shown by this picture.

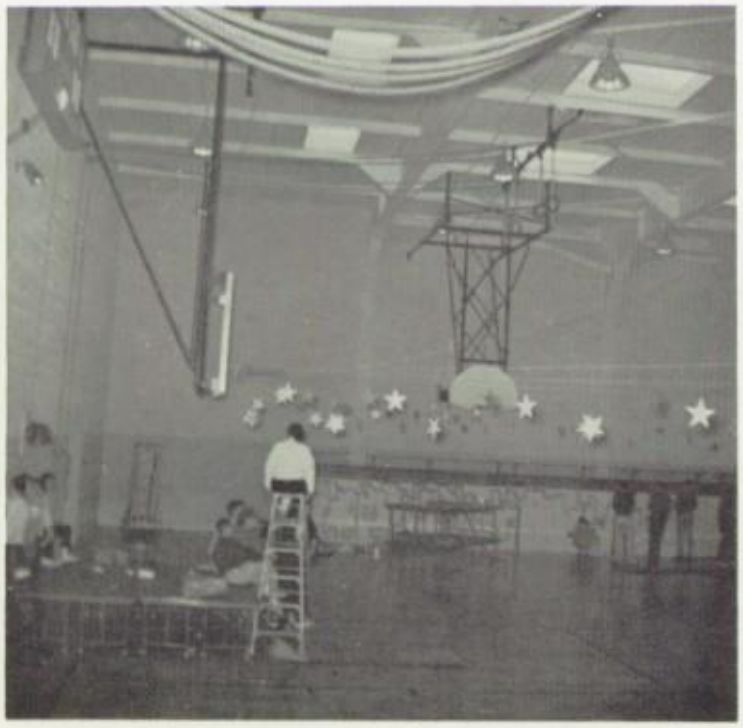
Walter Ostapiak and Vicky Arcail taking a sleigh ride in Central Park.

Pat Safko and Francis Sakmar having fun.

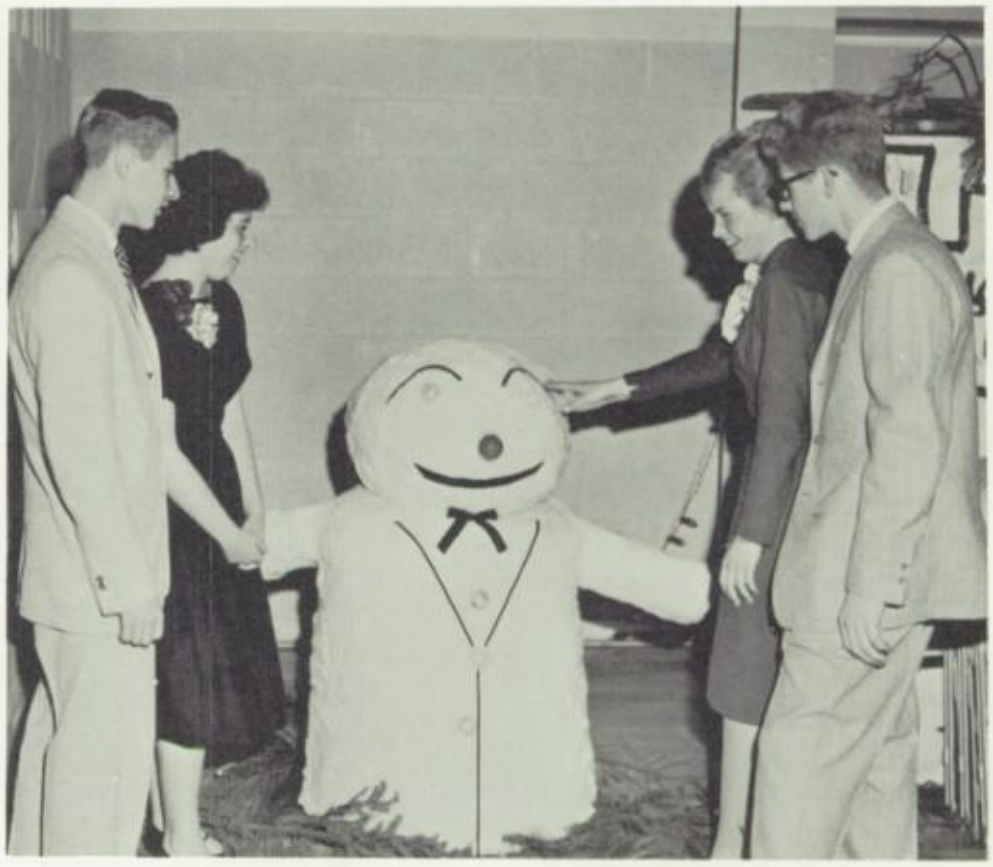
Intermission is always a favorite time at any dance. Diana Pescuric, escorted by the tall lad with glasses, George Phillips, takes a minute out to chat about the festivities.

DANCE

Much planning, work, and worry went into making the Christmas Dance surprisingly successful. A large crowd attended the dance even though it was a cold, wintry night. They were not disappointed, however, because the decorations were very lovely. The ceiling was a wonderland of low hanging stars that lent an atmosphere of charm to the entire scene. A majestic tree surrounded by park benches served as the center of attraction. The Sophomore Class deserves a note of appreciation for a job well done.

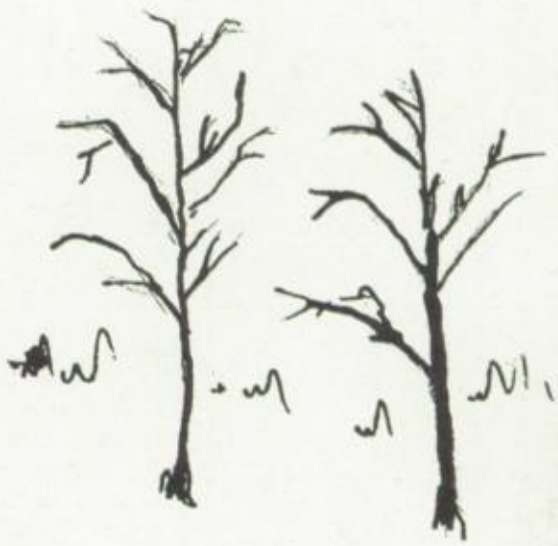


Here we see a group of lazy sophomores decorating for the big dance.



This jolly snowman receives a bit of attention from Jeanne Fuller and Steve Gironda while Carl Ott and Pam Rigo look on.

Bernetta Gieswhite and Suzie Alwine discussing plans for dance decorations.



VALENTINE

The breathless anticipation is over and the major mid-winter event has arrived. Amid a hush of expectancy the coronation of the king and queen of hearts takes place; John and Rosalie, selected by the Senior Class to reign for the evening, do so in the gracious manner of royalty. Although winter holds the outside world in an icy grip, all here is warmth and gentle music.

SENIOR PROM

May 14, 1960

The annual Junior-Senior Prom was held in St. Andrew's Hall at Benscreek on Saturday evening, May 14, 1960. The theme was "Bali Ha'i" and the hall was decorated accordingly. It was easy to imagine that the setting was real, seeing a star-studded background over a scene of palm trees and driftwood. A native hut surrounded by tropical greenery highlighted the decorations. Each visitor to the isle received a lei and a warm welcome. The G. A. Combo added to the tropical myth by providing soft, romantic music. Because of the combined effect of the setting and music, all who attended will have fond memories of "Bali Ha'i."

FOOTBALL CAMP

The Cooks—best liked people in camp.

Chow time and everybody enjoys the good food in the new cafeteria.

Coaches enjoy the food too!

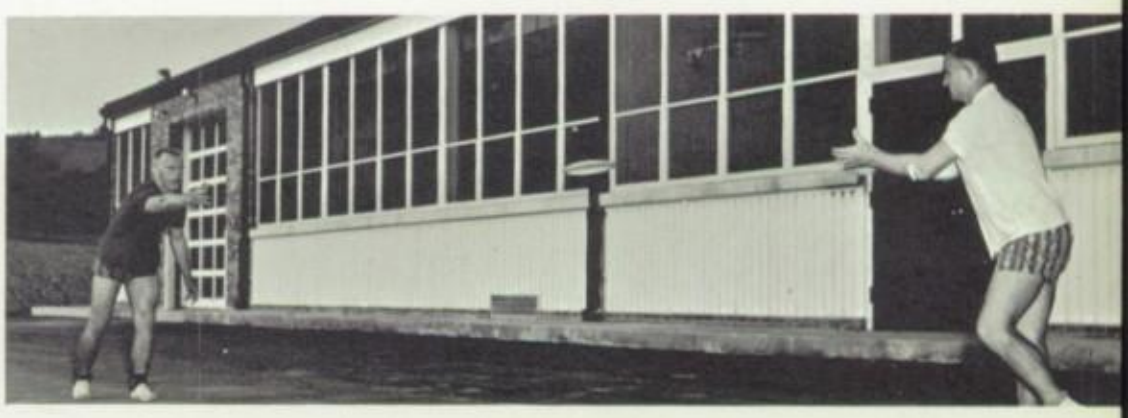
Bound up in his own bandages and given only a crutch to fight with, trainer Jack Foreback is given his "due reward" by the Seniors.

Football camp consists of a group of eager boys, a few coaches and lots of bruises and "charlie horses." This year's camp was no exception. There was less horseplay this year than in previous years, but when the first whistle sounded, the team was there—and it was a team. The friendships which were formed here, as well as the senses of sportsmanship and values, will endure long after the incidents of camp are forgotten.

Seniors sack out after a hard day's work.

There seems to be some dishonesty in this friendly game.

Radios, cards, and reading material fill the "free time."



Walter's "moon disc" was a lot of fun.

Fifteen seniors have stepped onto Memorial Field for the last time in the red suits and spiked shoes of the football player. The memories of this year and past years, on the home field and on alien soil will be recalled in the future; some will bring joy, others sadness. These memories will be of the bumps and bruises suffered in the victories and defeats in the year of 1960.

FOOTBALL

This year's football team and record are now a thing of the past. The Indians finished the season with a five wins and three losses record. The Tribe suffered its defeats from Central Cambria, Windber, and Indiana. The sweat and strain of eleven weeks were wrapped up in the final game—with Somerset. After the game, the team stood and listened to the band play the Alma Mater; many thoughts must have run through their minds: the game, the season, the days spent on the practice field up to that game. The season will be remembered by the boys, who learned many things from it.

A little more size and a little more weight, and no one will be able to hold back these Junior High football players.

Conemaugh Township's 1960-61 basketball team was the most successful in several years. As a consequence it received more student support at both home and away games. Team enthusiasm met a new peak in the spectacular Windber game which we won on our own floor by a 58-56 score in double overtime. With 6′4″ George Phillips snagging the rebounds and John Marone swishing the net to a twenty point tune, the Ramblers never had a chance. Members of our team unanimously agree that this win and several others were facilitated by the development of an excellent fast break.

Wrestling is a popular sport at Conemaugh Township. The grapplers worked hard to produce a winning team. With Coach Drenner administering calisthenics and Coach O'Connor instructing them in the skills of wrestling, the boys who went out for the sport really worked to get ready for each meet. After the dual meets came the District Five tournament and still more conditioning. For more than three months the grapplers worked for the finale—"Districts."

BASEBALL 1960

Tri-County Champs

When the yearbook went to press this year, baseball season hadn't begun, but there is quite an impressive story of the 1960 team. Last year for the first time since 1951 the CTHS batmen copped the Tri-County Championship. The Indians finished with an eight wins and one loss record in the regular season, and a three and zero record in the playoffs, giving them an eleven and one season's record. The team was sparked by the pitching of Senior Frank Grandas with a record of five wins and one loss, and Junior John Marone with a record of six wins and no losses. The Indians suffered their only defeat at the hands of Richland by a nine-two score. In the play-off games the Indians squeezed out Central Cambria three to two, beat Johnstown five to zero, and in the final game romped to an eleven to four win over Johnstown.

CHEERING

The cheerleaders are a peppy group of girls who have done a lot to promote better school spirit. They participated in pep rallies which really raised the roof. At the many sports events throughout the year these snappy lasses led the student body in cheers, giving our athletes the much needed moral support.
